We need a disney princess who's had an abortion

We need a disney princess who's pro-choice

We need a disney princess who's an undocumented immigrant

We need a disney princess who's actually a union worker

We need a disney princess who's trans

"Planned Parenthood Keystone, a branch of the health service provider based in Trexlertown, Pa., tweeted that, "We need a disney princess who's had an abortion / We need a disney princess who's pro-choice / We need a disney princess who's an undocumented immigrant / We need a disney princess who's actually a union worker / We need a disney princess who's trans."

"The tweet's construction riffed on a recently popular Twitter meme that imagines new animated princesses with traits serious and not. The non-profit Internet Archive's Wayback Machine — which archives snapshots of sites across the web — shows it stored six captures of the tweet on Tuesday. Planned Parenthood's national office confirmed the tweet and its deletion in an email to USA TODAY.

"Today, we joined an ongoing Twitter conversation about the kinds of princesses people want to see in an attempt to make a point about the importance of telling stories that challenge stigma and championing stories that too often don't get told," said Melissa Reed, Planned Parenthood's president and CEO. "Upon reflection, we decided that the seriousness of the point we were trying to make was not appropriate for the subject matter or context, and we removed the tweet."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: They now try to hide how they promote sin to children, as if modern role models should encourage evil behavior? To children? Why is PPhood still getting our tax dollars?]

Trump: Defund Planned Parenthood in 2019 Budget

President Trump is trying to keep his campaign promise to defund Planned Parenthood.

"President Donald Trump released a presidential budget request for FY 2019," reports LiveAction. "The annual federal budget process begins with the release of a presidential budget request to Congress:

"The president's budget proposal serves as a 'starting point' for the Congress to consider. Congress is under no obligation to adopt all or any of the President's budget and often makes significant changes. However, since the President must ultimately approve all future bills they might pass, Congress is often reluctant to completely ignore the spending priorities of the President's budget.

"Included in the president's budget request on page 56 is the following section regarding the Title X Family Planning program and Medicaid, in which President Trump requests prohibiting federal funds from going to 'certain abortion providers':"

"Prohibits Certain Abortion Providers from Receiving Federal Funds. The Budget includes provisions prohibiting certain abortion providers from receiving Federal funds from HHS, including those that receive funding under the Title X Family Planning program and Medicaid, among other HHS programs."

"Last year, for FY2018, President Trump also requested to 'eliminate funding for Planned Parenthood, including Medicaid reimbursements' — which did not happen — according to a previous Live Action News report. The president has made it clear that he is not a fan of the nation's #1 abortion profiteer, Planned Parenthood, even signing a bill in 2017 allowing states to defund the organization."

"Planned Parenthood provides little actual care to women and focuses primarily on providing abortions, committing more than 320,000 every year."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: Not one dime of taxpayer funding should kill children, period.]
