

Christian Group Kicked off Campus for Refusing 'Gay' Leaders

"A conservative Christian business organization at the University of Iowa is suing the school after it was kicked off campus for denying a leadership position to a gay member," reports The Blaze and Vice News.

"The group, Business Leaders in Christ, requires that those appointed to leadership positions support its Christian beliefs, including the belief that homosexuality is wrong.

"A gay member of the organization sought a leadership position but was denied because he said he 'disagrees with, and would not try to live by, BLinC's Christian principles,' regarding sexual orientation

"The university asserted that the BLinC was in violation of the school's Human Rights policy and the Iowa Civil Rights Act. Here is the school's statement:

"The University of Iowa respects the right of students, faculty, and staff to practice the religion of their choice. However, when a voluntary student organization chooses to become a registered student organization, it must adhere to the mission of the university, the UI's policies and procedures, and all local, state, and federal laws."

"The BLinC was removed as a student organization, and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Iowa will begin hearing the case Thursday."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: They are aggressively coming after YOU and your groups next. If your group doesn't want gay leaders, they want you to be banned from access to public universities. If your church doesn't sponsor gay 'weddings' they will force you to comply. They're already doing this with bakers. You're next, if we don't act.]

Teacher suspended after promoting Transgenderism to 11-year olds

"Concerned Christian parent Sirell Fiel of New York shared on Facebook last week a video describing — and condemning — a controversial homework project assigned to his seventh-grade child. The project, Fiel said, graphically detailed transgenderism and gender identity," reports The Blaze.

"At the time of this report, Fiel's post had received more 790,000 views.

"According to Fiel, the work was wholly inappropriate for schoolchildren.

"Genital reconstruction surgery," Fiel said in the video. "Is that really something an 11-year-old kid should be learning and knowing about? No. I don't think so."

"The homework contained a handout detailing a 'genderbread person' and explained what gender identity and attraction meant.

"The assignment also listed more than 50 sexual terms and slang words and encouraged the children to study the list for testing purposes....

"The teacher who assigned the homework, a health teacher at Cambridge Central School north of Albany, New York, was put on administrative leave with pay last week after Fiel's video went viral."

[Dr. Chaps' comment: There is NO excuse for subjecting children to this, and teachers who promote immoral transgenderism to children, or recruit them into homosexual activity should be fired and charged with sexual abuse of a minor. Prosecute the abusers! Thank God one dad defended his child by blowing the whistle.]
